

DOMINIQUE DAWKINS

A dynamic force in the world of dance, Dominique Dawkins is a professional dancer and choreographer known for her intensity, creativity, and commanding presence. With over thirty years of experience performing and choreographing for major film productions, shows, and performance companies, Dominique brings bold storytelling to life through movement.

As a sought-after creative director, she has led high-impact projects across stage and screen. Dominique also owns a premier dance studio in Dewitt, Dominique's Dance Creations (DDC), where she mentors the next generation of artists with passion and precision. Her choreography is both emotionally raw and technically refined, underscoring Dominique's role as a transformative figure in the industry. Every performance she touches leaves a lasting impression.